DONE AT HAWTHORNE.

The Prairie Stakes, a dash of two miles for three-year-olds and upward, with $1,500 added, was the main feature at Hawthorne yesterday. The race proved to be an easy victory for Rolling Boer, the even money favorite. Ed Adack led by a big margin for the first mile and a half, where Robbins called on Rolling Boer and he easily moved up, passing into the lead just after turning for home. In the last quarter Rolling Boer kept gradually moving away, winning pulled up to almost a walk by five lengths from Ed Adack, which beat Star Cotton six for second place. Ed Adack showed much speed for one and a half miles, but was easily outrun by the winner in the last half. Star Cotton, after the first four furlongs had been run, ran at about an even rate throughout. John McGurk was always outrun and labored heavily in the going. The stake was worth $1,760 to the winner.

The most exciting finish of the day occurred in the fifth race, a free handicap purse of $800, at one mile, Aladdin beating Brulare a nose on the post in a desperate drive, with Caliban third eight lengths back. Coburn stole a length and a half at the start with Aladdin, and this stood him in good stead when the pinch came. Aladdin and Brulare ran close together all the way. In the last eighth both were under strong pressure, but Coburn's superiority over Birkenruth told in the closing strides. Had Birkenruth gone on with Brulare instead of trying to place her down the backstretch she would probably have won.

The first race of the day, a dash of seven furlongs for three-year-olds, proved to be an easy thing for Corinne Unland. Hargis got a four lengths running start, but had not run a quarter of a mile before he was overtaken by Corinne Unland, which easily passed into the lead, winning as her rider pleased by three lengths. Hargis beat Serpent five and one-half lengths for second place. Frances M. showed early speed. The race was strictly a three-horse affair.

Ailyar is in splendid form just at present and had little trouble in taking the second race, a six furlongs dash for three-year-olds and upward. Ailyar and Alfred C. ran closely together for the first quarter, where the former drew away and simply spread-eagled the field, winning as his rider pleased by three and a half lengths from Fairbury, which beat Prince Blazes two and a half for second place. Fairbury ran in much improved form and showed to good advantage. He finished strongly and was much the best of the others. Prince Blazes began slowly but improved his position gradually after the first half had been run and finished strongly. Scotch Plaid ran a dull race and has probably had too much of it lately. Moabina was never a serious factor and her runaway of September 24 has probably hurt her. Alfred C. tired fast in the last quarter after showing much early speed.

Joe Buckley proved to be the best in the third race, a five-furlongs scramble for two-year-olds. First Florestan and then Marco led to the head of the stretch, but when well straightened for home Joe Buckley, which had always laid third, moved into the lead, winning handily by one length from Lord Touchwood, which beat Florestan a neck for second place. Lord Touchwood was cut off in the last sixteenth, but finished with a rush and was passing horses fast at the end. He would, in all probability, have won with any kind of racing luck. Florestan stood a long stretch drive with gameness and finished stoutly. Marco displayed keen speed, but was well beaten when a furlong from home. The race was strictly a four-horse affair throughout.

The last race at Hawthorne for 1902, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds and upward, was taken easily by Lady Meddlesome. Emma A. M., with a light impost up, led by a good margin up to the final furlong, where she tired and fell away beaten. About here Lady Meddlesome moved up fast and easily passed into the lead, winning by two and a half lengths from Dodie S., which beat Sortie a head for second place. With Ida V. lapped. Dodie S. was under a stout drive all through the last eighth and responded with gameness. Sortie finished resolutely after making up ground in the last quarter. Ida V. tired perceptibly when the pinch came. Pirate's Queen ran a dull race and was never a serious factor.

The heavy rain of the morning rendered the track sloppy and it was indented with small pools of water throughout. The crowd, augmented by the half holiday attendance, was by far the largest of the week. Betting was brisk and quite heavy.

WORTH'S STAKES.

Secretary Jasper announces eight good stakes for the Worth Jockey Club's fall meeting, which will open October 7 and run until November 1. Their value will approximate $25,000 and they will be for different ages and at various distances, from five and a half furlongs to two miles and a quarter. All have filled even better than was anticipated and with horses of good class, so they should do much toward sustaining interest in the local racing throughout the fall season.

The Flyaway Handicap will be the feature event of the opening day. It is a sweepstakes for all ages at six furlongs, and has seventy-one nominations, which include all the speediest horses around Chicago and throughout the west.

Three stakes are to be run the first week of the meeting, and on Thursday, October 9, which is Chicago Day, Secretary Jasper puts on the appropriately named Phoenix Handicap, for three-year-olds only, at a mile and a sixteenth. This race will be worth at least $3,500, and it should make a fine contest, as the thirty-nine entries include McChesney, Lucien Appleby, Aladdin, Harry New, Otis, Wainamoinen, Waswift, Hunter Raine and other good ones.

For Saturday of the same week the Alpine Stakes is the principal race. It is a selling sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upward at one mile, and from the sixty-seven nominations should come a large and well-balanced field.

Besides the above stake events the Worth meeting will have the Columbia Handicap, one mile and a quarter, worth $4,500; the Liberty Handicap, a mile and a furlong, worth $3,000; The Fort Dearborn Handicap, two miles and a quarter, worth $2,500; the Oaklawn Stakes, five and a half furlongs, for two-year-olds, worth $3,000; and the Chicago Ridge Handicap, for two-year-olds, one mile, worth $2,500.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Lyman Davis who was formerly connected with the Newport and Latonia tracks has been appointed assistant Secretary of the Worth Jockey Club.

Prince Blazes, which finished third in the second race, was purchased before the racing at auction by Durnell and Hertz for $350.

Joe Buckley, the winner of the third race, was bid up and secured for $1,800 by A. D. Worley, an advance of $700 over his entered price.

S. C. Hildreth sold Hermencia yesterday to W. Cahill for the reported price of $3,000.

H. E. Rowell will ship eleven horses next Monday to California to be raced at the tracks there this winter.

Jockey Tully, who was suspended in a steeplechase for carrying Bristol out of the course, was reinstated yesterday.

W. Burke & Co., who started Alfred C. in the second race, put in a claim for Moabina after the race, securing her for $997.50.

Starter Holtman will leave for West Baden Monday for a rest until the opening of Latonia.

MONTHLY FORM BOOKS.

The Form Book for September is ready for sale, and includes the racing of September 27. Paper cover, $1; leather cover, $1.50.

Winner—B. f. by Ben Strome—Lindele (trained by E. Feakes). Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Biserta, away badly, closed up steadily, running on the outside in the best going and caught the leaders tiring at the end, finishing strongly. Musidora ran a remarkable race in going supposed to be unfavorable to her, forced the pace and held on gamely. Alabarch broke slowly, but quickly raced into the lead and the hard, early effort tired him at the end. Lieschen finished well and ran her best race of this year. Lady Radnor and Oclawaha failed to stay. Carroll D. appeared like making it a runaway in the first quarter and quit suddenly.

Corrected weights—Worry, 98. Overweights—Biserta, 1 pound; Alabarch, 1; Fontenix, 3; The Dancer, 2. Biserta, show, 2 to 1. Musidora, show, 3 to 1. Alabarch, show, 1 to 2. Lady Radnor, show, 4 to 5. Oclawaha, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 5:07½. Winner—B. c. by Lissak—Lady Royster (trained by F. A. Clark). Went to post at 2:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Rowdy, in comparatively poor form, fenced indifferently and ran a dull race on the flat, but outstayed at the end the badly ridden and much interfered with Draughtsman. The latter was unlucky throughout and would have won with competent handling. Silent Friend led on sufferance and quit badly in the last half. Scratched—35217 Inspector Stevens, 162; 35217 Silver Twist, 130; 35217 Hop Brook, 130. Draughtsman, show, out. Silent Friend, show, out.

Time, 12½, 24½, 48½, 1:01½, 1:08. Winner—B. f. by Albert—Lady Craft (trained by J. H. McCormick). Went to post at 3:20. At post 8 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Lady Albercraft outclassed the field at the weights and in the going, ran a phenomenal race and is a wonder in mud. She outbroke, outraced and decisively outstayed the others. W. R. Condon, which also broke well, suffered from a hard early effort to beat the winner. Nevertheless he held on well and is a steadily improving colt. Wild Thyme got away badly, but closed a big gap and finished fast. Durazzo, poorly ridden and in the worst going throughout, was second best. He is improving and is a high class colt. Gloriosa, particularly favored by the going, ran a cracking good race. Sparkle Esher, in great form and nearly left, made up ten lengths and finished strongly. Lady Josephine had no chance with a bad jockey. Forward was not good enough. Plater could not run in the going.

Scratched—35247 Red Knight, 112; 35275 Mackey Dwyer, 107; 35039 Cinquevalli, 105; 35328 Examiner, 100; 35342 Dark Planet, 97.

Herbert outclassed the field in the going, forced the pace from a slow start and wore out the opposition in the first six furlongs and came away fast from Carbuncle's strong bid at the end. The latter was badly outrun in the early part of the race, but closed up with a rush in the stretch. Arsenal displayed brilliant speed but failed to stay and was outclassed by the winner. Blues was endeavoring to outrun Herbert for seven furlongs with disastrous results. Articulate, minus blinkers, was always outrun and never a serious contender.

We will notify you at least two days in advance through these columns when to expect wire. Remember what some of the "WISE ONES" are doing to the "BOOKSPORTS" in this locality, but that's what they are here for—to hand out the "yallar backs" to any that are wise to the "TRICKS." The high and lofty tumbling acts have made "form" at a discount and "hop ledgers" are at bargain prices. I am right in the merry game, standing in the limelight, and my joyous followers have been doing a ghost dance around the bookies. When it comes to the "tricks of the trade" and I am on to all the in-shoots, out-shoots and drop curves. Don't I make good and cash on all the "cincherions"? I'm up too early for them, and they can't tighten any dark secrets on me. Thirty years is the time I've put in getting wise to the peculiarities of the ponies. Each of these 30 years I also cut an extra eye tooth on the peculiarities of owners, trainers and booksports. That's why I am the MAIN SQUEEZE, and you get the only regularly reliable horse "info" from my wigwam. I know of a lot of choice melons that will be cut loose, that will be brought out of the "cold storage" factory. Subscribe for my track wire this week, and you will feel like getting FOUR ACES in the first draw. Terms for SIX SPECIAL TRACK WIRES (sent in cipher) $10, payable in advance. A copy of "HOW TO BET SUCCESSFULLY" mailed (free) on application.

Looks Like Red Handed Murder

MONEY MAKES MONEY ALL THE TIME.

Should you be unable to operate yourself or find it not convenient to place your money satisfactory send me a commission of $25 or $50 and I will place $5 or $10 straight on each of my good things at the track, thereby securing the best odds. When playing for you I do not charge for my information, but deduct 20 per cent of the net weekly winnings as my commission. Information is wired or mailed each morning so that you can keep record each day how your account stands. Winnings remitted at the end of each week by money order. Subscribe at once so as to take advantage of the numerous "good things" that will be put through this week and next.

WE PICKED EVERY WINNER AT HAWTHORNE SATURDAY.

AILYAR, 5-1, WON; JOE BUCKLEY, 3-2, WON; LADY MEDDLESOME, 2-1, WON; ROLLING BOER, 1-1, WON; ALADDIN, 1-1, WON; CORINNE UNLAND, 3-2, WON; HARGIS, 5-2, finished second; carried 4 1 2 lbs. over.

The overweights in the first race put Corinne Unland first on our handicap sheet, as there was one point in the figures separating her and our first choice Hargis. The latter carried 44 pounds over and Serpent, another contender, 7 lbs., which made Corinne Unland much the best at the weights. We gave the other five winners straight from the shoulder. This is the kind of information that is bound to get the money. Of course there were no long shots among the above, but they were sure things and delivered the goods. It is better at all times to play a horse that gets the coin than to stab at impossible long shots that have no ghostly chance of landing anywhere in the money. Our motto is: Winners at all times, long shots if possible, but winners under any circumstances.

SOMBRERO.

Sombrero, the winner of the California and Buffalo Derbys, is another exemplification of the impossibility of a rich man or a group of rich men cornering the horse market by buying up all the finely bred and good looking yearlings. Sombrero is practically a Haggin discard. Two years ago last spring he was led out of the sales ring at Sheephead Bay because no one would bid on him. G. Whittier, a colt by Kismet-Prose, on which Louis V. Bell made a killing at Gravesend last week, had preceded him. No one cared to bid on either Sombrero or G. Whittier, because they were scrawny little cobs, wanting in size. They were utterly deficient in "sales ring quality," which term is, under the American system of fattening yearlings like prize pigs, synonymous with "show ring quality." Mr. Haggin, who sat at the ringside with John Mackay, the manager of Rancho del Paso Stud, on one side and Green Morris on the other, said he would give the colt away to any one who cared to lead him to a stable.

"Never mind giving him away," replied Mr. Morris. "Let him go along with my lot. I've seen many a little runt like that grow into a first-class race horse. If I am a judge of conformation and action, this fellow has quality."

"All right, Morris," replied the veteran breeder. "Take him along, and may good luck go with him."

Mr. Morris took Sombrero along, and has as already related, won two Derbys with him, not to mention a number of smaller stakes and purses. Sombrero has furnished into a beautiful three-year-old. He is sound as a dollar, and, like a really good horse, he can sprint with sprinters and stay with stayers. Last year we thought him a sprinter only. Morris thought so, too. But Morris discovered when he tried to place him in the California Derby that he could easily do it. Sombrero submitted readily to restraint and ran from behind like a "major." Since the California Derby he has been "waited with," sometimes too long, as men who have backed him in incompetent hands can bear rueful testimony. Not one of two score horses which fetched anywhere from $500 to $15,000 at the sale from which Sombrero was led in disgrace has won a tithe of what he has earned in stakes and purses. He is easily the best three-year-old at any distance in the Morris establishment. If Mr. Morris does not race him all winter in California he has a royal chance of developing into a first-class four-year-old. He does not belong to Mr. Morris exclusively, as has been said. He is a Haggin horse, leased like Cunard, Artvis, Durazzo and Old England, to be returned to Rancho del Paso for breeding purposes when his usefulness as a racer shall have ended.—Daily America.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The fall meeting of the Delmar Jockey Club will be brought to a close on September 30, and the Fair Grounds will be reopened on October 1.

The unsightly old judges' stand at the Fair Grounds has been torn away and a new affair, patterned after the one at Delmar, erected in its place. The old stand at the Fair Grounds was too high and prevented spectators in the grandstand from obtaining a clear view of the races. It was impossible to see any part of a start at the six furlong chute from the press stand, while the old judges' stand was there. The new one is only one story high and will be in no one's way.

Some famous racing officials passed judgment on running and light harness races in the old stand at the Fair Grounds. J. J. Carter, who lost his life in the Baldwin Hotel fire at San Francisco, rendered some famous turf decisions in the old stand. Col. M. Lewis Clark, who committed suicide at Memphis a few years ago, also held forth when at the height of his career as a racing official in the old Fair Grounds stand. J. J. Burke was paid a salary of $125 a day to officiate as presiding judge for forty-eight days in this stand several years ago. Capt. Billy Williamson, who served in Nicaragua with the famous raider, Walker; Capt. J. H. Rees, the well-known Memphis steamboat man and racing official; J. A. Murphy, Charles Green, P. A. Brady, E. A. Maginn and other well-known racing turf officials worked in the old Fair Grounds stand some time or other during their careers on the turf.—St. Louis Republic.

"There is hardly a doubt," says the New York Herald, "that the location of several of the existing racing establishments will be very much changed, perhaps within a year. The sale of Morris Park, the most magnificent racing enterprise in America, is now an accomplished fact. While it is true that its new owners can put off for a time the final disposition of it as a race course the march of progress will soon demand that the theater of some of the greatest racing ever seen in the country will, ere long, be forced out of existence."

"In the same situation is the course at Gravesend. Streets may at any time be run through that property, which already is hemmed in by residences. Within the last few days a large piece of land has been bought near Queens, L. I., and it is said by many well-informed persons that it was acquired by the Brooklyn Jockey Club with a view of being ready to locate whenever it shall be necessary to give up the present quarters."

"The Coney Island Jockey Club is firmly entrenched in its present situation, while both Brighton Beach and Aqueduct are also safe for many years to come."

"The general opinion is that the leading race courses of the future will be located farther out on Long Island, within a radius of twenty miles, and will be patterned more after the English courses."

Went to post at 4:08. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won in a drive; second the same. Frank Bell was well rated behind the pacemakers, came fast around the stretch turn, ran gamely when challenged and was more than holding his own at the end. Lady Strathmore was out of her stride all the way to the stretch, then came fast, but tired in the closing strides. Buccleuth made a fast move around the upper turn and seemed like a winner to the last hundred yards, but quit in the pinch under a very weak ride. Miss Golightly showed speed, but tired badly. Schwalbe ran a very bad race. Santa Ventura showed none of her usual early speed.

Went to post at 4:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Ida Penzance lost ground on the first turn but ran a good race thereafter and just lasted long enough to stall off Leenja's rush at the end. Leenja was very poorly handled, swung wide into the stretch and was given a weak finish. She was probably best. Donator improved suddenly and ran a good race. Tulare ran to the mark. Assessment ran a bad race. Marion Lynch did better. She was given a very easy ride. Tenny Belle's race was too bad to be true.
Scratched—35306 Swordsman, 107; 35348 Saragamp, 104.

Nettie Regent ran well, but was given a very weak finish. Van Hoorebeke showed sudden improvement, ran a fine race and hung on gamely. Eleven Bells was very badly ridden. Linden Ella set a hot pace all the way, withstood Josie F.'s challenge in the stretch and won going away. She is very good just now. Josie F. showed improvement and ran a good race on a track that was not suited to her. Menace ran a dull race, in marked contrast to her last race, when she performed brilliantly. Corinne Unland, off badly, made up ground fast in the first quarter and easily passed into the lead. She then spreadeagled her field and won as her rider pleased. Hargis, off flying, had no mishaps and was much the best of the others, but the big advantage at the start stood him in good stead throughout. Serpent tired after the first half had been run. Dottie S. stood a long stretch drive with gameness and finished resolutely. Sortie made up ground fast in the last eighth and finished strongly. Ida V. tired slightly when the pinch came. Emma A. M. tired fast when the last sixteenth struggle came up. Pirate's Queen was never a serious contender. She can do much better.

Went to post at 3:50. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won ridden out; second easily. Butter Scotch was off running while the others were all tangled up. She raced Annie Lauretta to defeat in the first half and had enough left to stall off Khaki's challenge. The latter was under a hard drive all through the last quarter. Huzzah ran well but was tiring at the end. Lone Fisherman was as good as left at the post. So was Pay the Fiddler.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Counterpoise outlasted the field, forced the pace throughout and was easing up in the last quarter and evidently favors mud. Early Eve and Beguile had no chance from where they got off.

Went to post at 3:19. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Ayrshire Lad saved ground at the home turn, where he came through next to the inside rail. He tired in the last eighth and was driving to the limit to stall off Jerry. The latter came strongly after coming around the leaders when swinging into the homestretch. Night Owl came with a rush on the inside in the last sixteenth and got up in the last stride. Reservation is a slow beginner and was coming strongly. All Souls was sore when going to the post.
